The widely respected Vendor Landscape Matrix analyzes empirical data to rank vendors in the space according to their relative market status and the customer satisfaction levels which they achieve. In this year's edition, CCH Tagetik reached 100% recommended status among its customers with above average customer satisfaction across the fifteen main areas measured.

The BPM Partners analysis recognizes the ability of the CCH Tagetik platform to deliver comprehensive solutions, in standard or SAP HANA versions, for extended planning, financial close and consolidation, ESG and regulatory requirements, and corporate tax. The analysis also recognized new functionality to meet expanding business requirements including:

- ESG & Sustainability performance management
- Global minimum tax for BEPS Pillar Two requirements
- Connectors for SAP S/4HANA and Microsoft Power BI.

"This top position of Premier Leader would indicate that Wolters Kluwer is consistently meeting or exceeding the requirements of their customers and the market at large," said Craig Schiff President & CEO at BPM Partners.

"We are grateful for leading all vendors included in the survey based on feedback from customers," said Ralf Gärtner, Senior Vice President and General Manager of Corporate Performance Solutions, Wolters Kluwer. "Our gaze is fixed resolutely on customer satisfaction. Our guiding principle is to provide innovative solutions that solve business challenges, enable better decision-making, and deliver value that exceeds customer expectations.”
